

Terms and Conditions

RATES

Rates are subject to price increase at one months notice. Minimum charge of two weeks applies to short term storage.

INSURANCE

All insurances are to be arranged by the owner of the goods while goods are in storage.

In cases where the goods are packed by the owners, transport insurance must be arranged by the owners of the goods. Goods are carried under Carriers Liability insurance while they are in transit. Cover is limited to $1500 per container. In any case where the goods are in a container, pallet or package and where the container, pallet or package is provided by the contracting party the unit includes the container, pallet or package. If clients require more comprehensive insurance they must arrange Goods in Transit cover.

PAYMENTS

Storage charges are to be paid by Automatic Bank Payment one month in advance per calendar month on the first day of each month.

Charges are inclusive of day of moving in and day of moving out. Full settlement of account must be made before goods are released or delivered back to owners.

If account remains unpaid for three months or more, goods may be sold to recoup charges plus expenses incurred in selling of the goods. All costs involved gaining settlement will be charged to the customer and added to the account.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

It is the customers responsibility to advise the company of any change of address immediately.

REMOVAL OF GOODS

Cube Storage will not allow any person, other than the owner, to have access to the goods unless the company receives written and signed authority from the owners.

ACCESS TO GOODS

Customers are requested to indicate those goods which they may require access to while the goods are in storage. We will place these goods at the front of the cube for easier access. Request for access must be made 24 hours in advance.

CANCELLATION

Cube Storage has the right to cancel storage at one months notice.

UNACCEPTABLE GOODS

Cube storage does not permit or accept goods such as, cash or currency of any kind, jewellery, gold, silver, livestock, matches, petroleum products, flammable liquids, gasses, explosives, firearms, food, drugs or other illegal products and it is the clients responsibility not to include these goods for storage.
